

I am getting calls from someone claiming to be “Mechanics Choice” trying to sell me a warranty. Is that you?

No, it’s not us. We want to let you know that these calls are not from “MCW” but appear to possibly be from a company called “Mechanics Choice, Inc.”

So, who are you?

We are “MCW” We do not sell warranties directly to the public. Our warranties are only available through our network of authorized and licensed auto and powersports dealers. Even then, they are only available in conjunction with the sale of a vehicle. Again, we do not make phone calls, market or sell our warranties directly to the public.

So, who is it that’s calling me then?

While we can’t be certain, there is a company simply called “Mechanics Choice, Inc.” We think they may market and sell warranties directly to the public. They can be reached at www.mechanicschoice.com or 844.740.5143. We are in no way affiliated with that company.

Is there anything you can do to make them stop?

We wish we could! This has caused a lot of confusion! Unfortunately having a similar name isn’t against the law. We strongly suggest that you get all the details you can about exactly who is calling you, then take appropriate actions by notifying the proper authorities.

What else can I do to make them stop?

We encourage you to make sure you are signed up with the Federal Do Not Call Registry. More information about signing up and reporting abuse can be found here: www.donotcall.gov .
